Little Improvement in Conditions From the Mississippi to the Atlantic.

ATLANTA ENTIRELY CUT OFF

Only News From Outside World Received by Mail and Has No Electric Light.

(By Associated Press.)
LOUISVILLE, KY., Feb. 9.—Conditions resulting from the long continued rais and sleet storm show slight improvement in the southwest to-day, but there is no betterment of the situation from the Mississippi to the Atlantic coast.

The telephone companies in this vast area have been practically out of business since last Saturday night, The telegraph companies are in but little tolegraph companies are in but little better condition and messages are being sent by trains between cities where wire communication is interrupted. The storm has moved north and enatward. Atlanta has been shut off since Sunday, and the only wire with Atlanta for fourteen hours has been with suburban towns.

A large corps of telegraphers arrived to-day in Montgomery, carrying hundreds of messages. The operators were under the impression that plenty of wires would be found there for the distribution of the accumulated business. The situation in Montgomery, however, is not much better than that at Atlanta, and the messages will probably be started northward by train unless the wires are in a measure restored during the day. Twenty-five hundred telephores are useless in Atlanta, and no electric lights have been in use there for three nights owing to the crippling of wires.

ATLANTA STILL CUT OFF FROM OUTSIDE WORLD

(By Associated Press.)

(By Associated Press.)
CHATTANOGA, TENN., Feb. 9.—
Weather conditions in Atlanta and vicinity to-day are unprecendented in the history of that section. The Atlanta Constitution issued to-day announces across the front page that Atlanta is cut off from the outside world, and that it is impossible to publish telegraphic news from other sections.

There are only seven items in to-day's Constitution centaining date lines, and these are small and of minor importance, and reached the paper by mail from spe-

GREAT DAMAGE WROUGHT IN AND AROUND ATLANTA

(By Associated Press.)

(By Associated Press.)

ATLANTA, GA., Feb. 9-(Noon)-(By special messenger to Montgomery, Ala.)—Atlanta is cut off from the rest of the world by whre communication, both telephone companies being without a wire to points beyond the limits of their operating rooms. Several thousands telegraph poles are down around Atlanta. Besides the damage to wires, the loss of shade trees in Atlanta has been enormous. The loc-laden branches have broken, delaying or stopping street car traffic, lighting and telephone communication within the city limits. Six thousand telephones are deported out of use. The isolation of Atlanta has been in-The isolation of Atlanta has been in-tensified by the delay to traffic by team from country points, and prices of pro-duce have risen to almost prolibitive figures. Supplies of staples are normal.

DISABLED CRUISER HAS BEEN SIGHTED

Newport Anchored Short Distance From Capes Awaiting Assistance.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., Feb. 9.—The British steamship Juca, which arrived from New Orleans to-day, reported passing the disable gunboat Newport twelve miles gouth by east of Cape Henry. Shortly after-wards the gunboat Siren was sent out from the navy yard to nid the Hornet from the navy yard to aid the Hornet in locating the Newpert, and the revenue cutter Onandago, which arrived in from the sea, was ordered to take on fresh provisions and go out on the same errand.

The latest report is that the Newport has anchored in the position she was sighted by the Inca, and is waiting for the government boats to tow her in Commander Wertz has not asked aid from passing steamers, and it is thought this action was taken to prevent salving claims against the government.

It is expected the Newport will be towed into port to-morrow morning.

MR. PULLEN FALLS.

Had Just Recovered From Serious Injury.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
COMORN, VA., Feb. 9.—Commissione comorn, VA., Feb. 3.—Commissioner of the Revenue Joseph A. Pullen, of this county, who has been an invalid and great sufferer most of the time for nearly four years past, as a result of a street car accident in Washington, had a fall some days ago, which, it is feared, will prove serious. In the Washington accident, the bones of one of Mr. Pullen's hips were mashed and mangled, and he was otherwise badly hurt, so that he lingered between life and death, and lay flat on his back for many months.

He finally recovered sufficiently to move about by the aid of crutches, and was attending to business when overtaken by his recent sever eaccident. He is one the most useful and popular men in King George, and has the sympathy of all classes.

Howard-Atkinson.

(Special to The Times Dispatch?), (ROCKVIIALE, VA., Feb. 9.—'Casco," the home of Mr. and Ma. R. L. Atkisson, was the scene of a pretty-but quiet marriage at 3 o'clock yesterday, when Miss Esther May Atkisson became the bride of Mr. Daniel B. Howard. Rev. E. T. Dadinun, of Ashland, officiated. Miss Minnie Howard was the maid of honor. Mr. Lanwood Arkisson was best man.

A raception was tendered the bridal party at the home of the groom's parents.

MANY INJURED IN SOUTHERN COLLISION

Florida Express and Shifting Engine Came Together in Short Curve.

(By Associated Press.)

COLUMBIA, S. C., Feb. 2.—Ten or fourteen passengers and nine members of the train crew were slightly injured in a rear-end collision between the Southern Railway's southbound New York and Florida Express train No. 33 and a shifting engine pushing freight ears at the critance of the old Hlanding Street station in this city at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

tion in this city at a o clock the arter, pool.

Both engines were badly wrecked and the mall car of No. 33 was telescoped, but none of the passenger cars left the track. All of the erockery in the dining car was broken and four of its employes were injured. The accident occurred in a sharp curve of a high embankment, and that no once was killed is miraculous. The engineer and fireman of the passenger train saved themselves by jumping just before the crash.

Artificial Rubies.

Attinicial Rubies

A German saper states that artificial rubles have been produced in France by reducing small natural rubies into a very fine poyder, which is melted in an electric furnace, cooled rapidly and crystalized. The product obtained, from what was of little worth on account of minuteness, possesses a comparatively high value. The main difficulty encountered is to prevent cavities and fishures in the crystals. The new process cannot be employed with elementals and supplies, as they become discovered by the scene of the heat.
